

Remember December 6

On this date in 1989, a gunman killed 14 women at Montreal's École Polytechnique, before killing himself. In the suicide note he left on his body, he described his rage against women and identified their pursuit of social equality as the event that singularly "ruined his life."

His rampage echoes acts of domestic murder and abuse that continue to be committed even today.

Speak out against Violence

Unite for Change.

Remember:

- Geneviève Bergeron • Hélène Colgan • Nathalie Croteau • Barbara Daigneault • Anne-Marie Edward • Maud Haviernick
- Maryse Laganière • Maryse Leclair • Anne-Marie Lemay
- Sonia Pelletier • Michèle Richard • Annie St-Arneault
- Annie Turcotte • Barbara Klucznik-Widajewicz

Violence in all its forms is an expression of intolerance, inequality and fear.

The best way to prevent violence is to work with others for change. Personal, social and political change will better the lives of all.

The Ontario Coalition of Rape Crisis Centres (OCRCC) works toward the prevention and eradication of sexual violence.

www.sexualassaultsupport.ca • www.draw-the-line.ca